

1884, ch 242.

18. He shall render to the commissioners of charities and corrections, at their last meeting in each year, a statement of his accounts, under oath; and all accounts settled by the treasurer or overseer of the almshouse, with said commissioners, shall be on oath that they are just and true—such oath to be administered by any one of said commissioners.

Ibid.

19. The overseer shall keep a list of all poor, beggars, vagrants, vagabonds, and other offenders, who shall be committed to said almshouse, and regular accounts of all materials and other things that may come to his hands as overseer, and shall lay said lists and accounts before the commissioners of charities and corrections, when required.

Ibid.

20. He shall compel all the inmates of said almshouse, if of sufficient ability, to work.

Ibid.

21. Upon complaint made that any person from his disorderly conduct gives disturbance to a neighborhood, and is likely to become chargeable to the county, any justice of the peace of the county, if upon hearing the party he shall adjudge the complaint to be well founded, may commit such disorderly person to the almshouse for any time not exceeding three months, unless he shall find security, at the discretion of the justice, in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars, for his good behavior for the space of six months.

Ibid.

22. Said commissioners of charities and corrections shall have full power and authority to receive into the almshouse or Montevue hospital all such lunatics or insane persons or paupers as may be committed thereto by any of the circuit courts of this State, and also all such lunatic or insane persons as may be placed in said hospital by their friends for safe-keeping or treatment, and shall be entitled to receive as compensation for the board, treatment and support of such persons, such compensation as may be reasonable and just, to be paid by the county commissioners of
